

I have been subject to more and more hang-ups on unidentifiable calls. Yesterday and today I have been called before 9:00 am by the same company after asking them to put me on their do-not-call list. I support a national do-not-call list with no exemption for any telemarketer.